The witnesses examined yesterday morning were Messrs. A. B. Williams. W. H. Moseley, J. E. Taylor, Harry Whaley, Charles Angle, A. T. Lucas. Daniel Weisiger, Claiborne Epps and Charles Saltz.

Williams remained in the room longer than any of the other witnesses. He was afterwards recalled, and was with the jury for some ten minutes.

Story Denied. Story Denied.

It was denied yesterday by an election officer, who served at Fourth Madison, that a ticket had been handed Charles Seltz, already marked against Mr. George Ainslie for the Senate. The precinct went for Mr. Ainslie, and the officer says there could have been no reason to mark tickets against him. Judge Witt yesterday issued a sweep-ing injunction to all witnesses not to Richmond may well feel proud of its ase-ball team that has been in Norfolk for the past three days. lay's victory over the Norfolk nine made three straights for the home boys O'Leary, who last season did box work for the Nashville aggregation in Southern League, was in the box for the Brownles yesterday, and the Norfolk players could get only one run of of him, while the team behind O'Leary piled up four runs.

To-day the Brownies play in Emporia. They will leave Norfolk early this morn-'ing, and will start from Emporia to Richmond immediately after the game this afternoon. Crawford, the southpaw for the Richmond team, will do the twirling in to-day's game, and either McLeacy, Knightly or Eimore will behind the bat.

The team that left here Saturday for Norfolk to play the three games was one equal to any team in the Southern League. Especially fortunate were the travelers in batteries. Hulcher and Crawford were the two left-handed ball tossers that accompanied the team. Leake, O'Leary and McEvoy and Hogan were the right wing pitchers. Elmore, Knightly and McLeavy, each an excellent man behind the bat, are with the team. At first buse, Gruner or Alcellent man behind the bat, are with the team. At first buse, Gruner or Albert Anthony can play, and at the bat both are good men. John Anthony is in center field. At third base is Meyor, one of the fastest infielders in the league, and perhaps the best allround player in the State.

Saturday's games here will be witnessed by a crowd that is expected to be the largest seen at the park this season. With good weather there will be five thousand people to see the two games. Richmond goes against Manchester for the opening game, and the games. Richmond goes lightly and the brownles will try conclusions with Barton Heights for the second game. The teams are so close together now, with the exception of the Brownles, who are leading by a good distance, that the winning or losing of a game means much in the standing column.
